

Strategic Writing™

This 16-hour business writing course leads participants through the thinking process behind writing clear messages and business documents. With this strategic writing training process and proprietary document models, writers will improve their personal and corporate productivity, achieve intended results, improve clarity, and present the appropriate image to clients, colleagues, and the public. Business writing course participants bring their on-the-job writing samples to class for immediate application of the principles learned.

Key Objectives

- Use strategic organizational formats that achieve results
- Improve business writing clarity to prevent rework and mistakes
- Organize details and data based on situation/audience analysis
- Write authoritatively and persuasively to get action
- Eliminate grammatical errors that mar image, create confusion, and often lead to litigation
- Select an appropriate business writing style to present a professional image
- Condense document length to save reader time
- Reduce writing time

Who Should Attend

Anyone who writes to deliver results—correspondence, reports, proposals, procedures

Materials/Texts

Participants will receive two books written by Dianna Booher, E-Writing: 21st-Century Tools for Effective Communication (Simon & Schuster/Pocket Books) and Booher's Rules of Business Grammar: 101 Fast and Easy Ways to Correct the Most Common Errors (McGraw-Hill) and participant manual containing writing samples, along with job-aid cards.

Class Size

Up to 20 participants